

CHÂTEAU PAPE CLÉMENT

An urban vineyard in Bordeaux

Melano – Tuesday, September 19, 2017

We are pleased to announce a renowned tasting dinner featuring the wines of Château Pape Clément. This September, with the exclusive participation of Lionel Labat, Bernard Magrez's right arm, this will be an unforgettable evening. The event will take place on Tuesday, September 19, 2017, at The Secret Spot in Melano.

The grand Château Pape Clément estate lies in the Pessac-Léognan region, situated just outside of the city of Bordeaux. Since entrepreneur Bernard Magrez acquired the estate, he has improved its reputation becoming one of the most glorified producers in Bordeaux. Even Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate agrees, stating that: "thanks to this incredible terroir, he can almost compete with both Haut-Brion and with Mission Haut-Brion, just a few miles away".

During the tasting dinner, Lionel Labat will be delighted to present the best vintages ever produced in Bordeaux, including the 2005, 2012 and 2014, but also Robert Parker's "Bottled Perfection" the remarkable 2010.

The wine list will follow a sensory path led by Lionel Labat, it is sure to be another exceptional occasion for all Bordeaux lovers.
