BERNARD MAGREZ

A Stradivarius in Zürich – Special Wine Tasting

ARVINO Zürich – Thursday, 26 April 2018

Based on the words - "l'art de partager" otherwise, "the art of sharing" - ARVI's next exclusive event has been planned hand in hand with Bernard Magrez for Thursday, 26 April 2018 and will be held at our new ARVINO shop in Zürich.

For this special event, ARVI would like to share the renowned wines of Bernard Magrez, but also the magical sounds of Magrez's original Stradivarius instrument – which he named after one of his estates - Château Fombrauge.

During the evening, one of the most brilliant French violinists, Nicolas Dautricourt, will entertain us with his incredible musical renditions played on a Stradivarius. This unique instrument was built by the famed Antonio Giacomo Stradivari in the early 1700s. The Stradivari family was highly reputed for their top-quality string instruments during the 17th and 18th centuries, which defied standards, producing a very limited number of unique violins, violas and cellos.

The tasting will highlight five out of Bernard Magrez's forty-one wineries, four of which are celebrated Grands Crus Classés estates.

Discover the incredible convergence of two wonderful worlds, that of music and of course, that of wine.
