

BARON PHILIPPE DE ROTHSCHILD & S. PELLEGRINO SAPORI TICINO

When a Great Chef Meets Great Wines

Melano - Wednesday, 16 May 2018

After last year's immense success, ARVI is pleased to present, together with S. Pellegrino Saporì Ticino, a glorious event that will unite the highly regarded wines of Baron Philippe de Rothschild group and the 2-starred Michelin Chef, Andrea Migliaccio, of the renowned L'Olivo di Capri restaurant.

The event will be take place at ARVI's - The Secret Spot - Melano on Wednesday, May 16, 2018.

The Baron Philippe de Rothschild SA (BPhR) is a family-run firm, run by Philippe and Camille Sereys de Rothschild and Julien de Beaumarchais de Rothschild, the Baron Philippe de Rothschild's grandchildren, who founded the Company in 1933. The BPhR is based in Pauillac, where it manages three Grands Crus Classés: the Château Mouton Rothschild, appointed Premier Grand Cru Classé, the Château Clerc Milon and the Château d'Armailhac, both denominated Grand Cru Classé in 1855. Besides, in 1998, the Company has exported its name abroad through the acquisition by the Baroness Philippine de Rothschild of the Domaine de Baronarques, near Limoux.

During the evening, wines from their three Grands Crus Classés estates - Château d'Armailhac, Château Clerc Milon and their most famous, Château Mouton Rothschild - will be presented, as well as their little-known but highly performing properties - Domaine de Baronarques and Château Coutet.

Paying homage to Baron Philippe de Rothschild's collection of wines, ARVI's Head Chef - Niccolò Pilastro - will host the renowned Andrea Migliaccio, to design a meticulous pairing menu that will bring out the unique characteristics of each wine. The gastronomic selection highlights the best of classic, traditional cooking, using the greatest seasonal products.
