

TASTING MARCHESI MAZZEI "SIEPI & CONCERTO"

*Experience the excellence of Tuscany with the owner
Marquis Filippo Mazzei*

ARVINO Zürich – Thursday, 15 November 2018

Together, in the presence of owner Marquis Filippo Mazzei and in collaboration with famed wine magazine, Falstaff, ARVI is pleased to present a vertical tasting of both - Siepi and Concerto. This event will take place at our Luxury Wine Shop – ARVINO – Zürich on Thursday, 15 November 2018 at 18:00.

Castello di Fonterutoli, the castle and the land itself, has been owned by the Mazzei family since 1435. Today, after almost six centuries, the family continues in their quest for excellence under the guidance of 24th generation, Marchesi Filippo and Francesco Mazzei.

Amongst Mazzei's many quality labels, Siepi represents a specific "Cru" which is grown on 6 hectares of vineyards composed of 50% Sangiovese and 50% Merlot. The average annual production of only about 20,000 bottles. Gambero Rosso writes that this label was "one of the 50 wines that have changed Italy". Concerto on the other hand, helped to rewrite the history of Italian wine. In the 1980s, this wine was a forerunner that shaped the "Super Tuscan" movement. A blend of 80% Sangiovese and 20% Cabernet Sauvignon, Concerto's annual production is only 25,000 bottles per year.

It is only normal that these incredible wines are also celebrated by the world's greatest wine experts, like James Suckling, which awarded the 2015 and 2016 Siepi with 98 points and the 2015 Concerto with 96 points. Concerto 2013 received 94 points from Robert Parker.

A special experience for all lovers of Tuscany and for those who want to discover the rarities of Chianti Classico.
